NOTICE TO CORRESPONDENTS

We decline sending perishable goods, Bulbs or Plants, C. O. D., unless a remittance of 50 per cent. accompanies the order to insure us against loss. Orders from unknown correspondents must be accompanied with cash or satisfactory reference. All bulbs forwarded at purchaser's expense. If to be sent by mail an extra amount must be sent to cover postage, which varies according to the variety of bulbs; where no amount is quoted for postage, those varieties will be sent free by mail.

Not all fall bulbs are ready at the same time, but nearly all the Dutch importations are in stock about October 1st. It is impossible for us to ship all varieties of bulbs at the same time, as some do not arrive till December or January. Please note time of arrival attached to each variety. Forward your orders as early as possible before our stock becomes broken.

BULBS

For Fall and Winter Planting

More people should know the pleasure of growing Dutch bulbs. The classic beauty of flowers and foliage, the richness of perfumes, and the gorgeous and lasting decorative effect of the cut flowers are irresistible when one has once learned these things for himself. All bulbs are comparatively easy of culture, although, as in all gardening, the best results reward those who bestow the best care.

In brief words the secrets of growing bulbs successfully are good drainage, rich, loose soil, and planting deeply. If you are in doubt about soil being too heavy put a little sand under each bulb; or better still, throw out the heavy soil to a depth of about two feet, put in a layer of broken bricks or stones for drainage and refill with loamy soil.

HYACINTHS

For certainty and regularity of bloom, Hyacinths are unsurpassed by any other flowers. The simplicity of their culture and the invariable return for the little labor required to grow them, make them general favorites. Plant in open ground, in good rich soil, from November to January, covering to the depth of from 3 to 4 inches. For pot culture plant in 5-inch pots, leaving one-third of the bulb exposed. Keep in a cool dark place five or six weeks till the roots are fully developed, then gradually inure to the light. In glasses, fill the glass with water, so as to nearly touch the base of the bulb. A piece of charcoal, the size of a walnut, put into the water, will keep it pure and obviate frequent changing. In changing the water, draw the roots lightly through the hand to clean them from any scum which might, if left, induce rot.

NARCISSUS

The Narcissus is one of the most useful of the early blooming bulbs, being hardy and of easy culture. Plant in any good garden soil, any time from the first of November to the end of January, covering to a depth of about 5 inches. The Polyanthus varieties may also be grown in pots or water. The varieties of Narcissus are deserving of far more attention than they have hitherto received in this section; their variety of color—varying from pure white to bright orange—delicious fragrance, easy culture and free blooming qualities, render them desirable for garden and for cutting.

CROCUS

The Crocus is among our earliest spring flowering bulbs, and makes a splendid show when grown in masses. They may be planted any time in the fall, in good garden soil, about 3 inches deep and 3 or 4 inches apart; they may also be grown in pots or glasses, sometimes grown in ornamental pots shaped like a hedgehog, when the bulbs are inserted in small holes about 1 inch apart. When in bloom, they are very effective for house decoration.

Ranunculus

RANUNCULUS

Should be planted in rich, well drained sandy soil. If the soil is heavy, prepare it by mixing in plenty of sand and well rotted manure to the depth of 6 or 7 inches, or by making a small trench 4 or 5 inches deep, filling this up with sand in which plant the bulbs about 3 inches deep, being careful to press the sand firm around them. Ranunculus are strikingly beautiful flowers, of every imaginable shade from bright vermillion to pink, yellow and pure white. They are free bloomers, very double and useful for cut flowers. Will be found to amply repay for a little extra care in cultivation, and are worthy of everyone's attention.

IRIS

Postage 5c per dozen extra; Kaempferi, 10c each extra.

A beautiful class of flowering plants, with flowers of sweet perfumes and quaint forms, almost equaling orchids in beauty, richness and variety of color; very useful for bouquets and vases, lasting a long time when cut. Plant in light, rich soil, about three inches deep. Often planted in clumps when they are particularly effective; for this purpose set the bulbs about 3 inches apart each way; every three or four years they should be dug up and reset.

CALOCHORTUS

"The Mariposa Lily," or "Butterfly Tulip"

These are among the most beautiful of our native California plants. The flowers resemble a tulip in form, and are of the most varied and showy colors. May be planted in good soil, covering about 3 inches deep, any time from August to November, but early planting is considered best. For eastern culture, as a pot plant, they will be found especially useful.

	Each	Per Dz.

LILIES

Postage 20c to 25c per dozen extra

We cannot say too much in praise of this elegant class of plants, which are becoming more popular every season. The Lily has been rightly termed the "Queen of Flowers," and no flower can convey a more true idea of purity, grandeur and stately beauty. Very handsome either for garden or pot culture, deliciously fragrant and fine for cut flowers.

Culture in open ground; dig well, add some sand and well rotted manure (except for Auratum, which will not bear manure) and plant about 5 inches deep. Culture in pots: Give thorough drainage, then fill up with compost, consisting of good, rich soil, peat and river sand; place the bulb firmly on this and cover about one inch below the surface; give no water until plants appear above ground, then water freely.

L. Harrissii ready September 1st, other varieties about the middle of December.

FREESIA

This elegant little flower seems to be especially adapted to the climate of California, and is becoming more popular each season. They succeed best in light soil, and may be planted from August to November, from 2 to 3 inches deep; flowers which appear in February and March are white, fragrant and very useful for cut flowers, often lasting for two weeks if cut as soon as open.

Freesia refracta alba, pure white, very handsome, possessing a peculiar grace of form and delightful fragrance, one pot of five or six bulbs being sufficient to perfume a whole house. Per dozen 15c; per 100 $1.00. Mammoth size 25c per dozen, $1.75 per 100.

Freesia

TUBEROSE

Postage 20c per dozen extra. Supplied from January to May.

"Polyanthus Tuberosa," one of the most beautiful summer and fall flowering bulbs in cultivation. Flowers are pure white and of exquisite fragrance. Admirably adapted for cut flowers, and of easy cultivation. Plant in open ground, when the soil has become warm. May also be started indoors in pots, earlier, and afterwards planted to where they are to flower. Hardy in Southern California.

Double Pearl, far superior to the old double variety, growing only about 2 feet high, with large individual double white florets, which have longer foot stalks than the old variety, rendering them more useful for cut flower purposes. Large bulbs, each 5c; per dozen 50c; per 100 $3.00.

MISCELLANEOUS BULBS

Agapanthus umbellatus, "African Lily," beautiful porcelain blue, of easy culture Each 25c-50c. Postage 10c to 15c each extra.
